

Literature list

for course at second level
Baltiska språk i kontakt
Baltic Languages in Contact

Course code: BAL760
Valid from: Autumn 2023
Date of approval: 2023-06-13

Literature

Available as electronic resources:

- Language Contact. An introduction, by Sarah G. Thomason. Edinburgh University Press (2001)
- Languages in Contact: Findings and Problems, by Uriel Weinreich. Walter de Gruyter (2010) (Chapters 1, 5)

Available electronically or on Athena:

- Language Contact and Grammatical Change, by Bernd Heine and Tania Kuteva. Cambridge University Press (2005)
- *Circum-Baltic Languages, Volume 1: Past and Present, *edited by Østen Dahl and Maria Koptjevskaja-Tamm. (2001)

The Latvian language and its dialects, by Laimute Balode and Axel Holvoet, pp 3- 40

The Lithuanian language and its dialects, by Laimute Balode and Axel Holvoet, pp 41-79

- *Circum-Baltic Languages, Volume 2: Grammar and Typology, *edited by Østen Dahl and Maria Koptjevskaja-Tamm. (2001)
- The Analysis of Linguistic Borrowing, by Einar Haugen, pp 210-231, Vol. 26, No. 2 (1950)
- Language Contact, by Yaron Matras. Cambridge Books Online (Chapter 1)
- The Changing Languages of Europe, by Bernd Heine and Tania Kuteva. Oxford University Press (2006) (Chapters 1, 2)

- West European loanwords in Modern Latvian, by Juris Balduncīks in: *Languages in Contact and Contrast: Essays in Contact Linguistics, *by Volker Gast., pp 15-24, Walter de Gruyter (2011)
- Additional articles and handouts distributed in class