

Literature list

for course at second level

Demokrati, politik och sociala förändringar
Democracy, Policy and Social Change

Course code: EH1704
Valid from: Spring 2024
Date of approval: 2023-11-16

Literature

Books*:

Gar Alperovitz (2013). What then Must We Do?, White River Junction, Vermont: Chelsea Green Publishing. (Available as an e-book through Stockholm University Library)

Manuel Castells (2009). Communication Power, New York: Oxford University Press. (Available as an e-book through Stockholm University Library)

Paul Goodman (1994). Decentralizing Power: Paul Goodman's Social Criticism, Taylor Stoehr (ed.), Montreal: Black Rose Books. (Available as an e-book through Stockholm University Library)

Seymour Melman (2001). After Capitalism, Alfred A. Knopf. (Available as an e-book through Stockholm University Library)

Carol Pateman (1975). Participation and Democratic Theory, Cambridge: Cambridge University Press. (Available as an e-book through Stockholm University Library)

Jean-Paul Sartre (1968), Search for a Method, New York: Vintage Books

*For journal article, and single chapters in e-books, please see the course description.